Abstract (summary)

We have had fine weather, with little interruption, during the week and the harvest is proceeding rapidly. The CORN trade has consequently been dull, and WHEAT and FLOUR are both rather cheaper. COTTON maintains its value. In the Colonial and Foreign Produce markets there has not been much doing, but price of most articles have been supported.

Abstract (summary)

COTTON.--In our Circular advices of the 6th inst., per Canada we reported the Cotton market as closing quietly, with sales of 8,000 bales on that day. Business to a like extent, transpired on Saturday, without change of feeling. The Asia's advices came to hand the same evening, and while the letters from the North mentioned favorably of the prospects for the growing crop, the tenor of those from Mobile and New-Orleans were not of so flattering a description. On Monday, business opened with a good inquiry, which resulted in sales of 12,000 bales, 4,000 of which were Surat Egyptian, principally taken on speculation.

Abstract (summary)

The election excitement being over by virtue of the "exhaustive process," there being now no materials to feed it, we are beginning to feel the reaction of dulness. The most indefatigable of journalists cannot write articles for ever, on speculation of what is to happen when Parliament reassembles, and calculations on the relative strength of parties have become flat, stale and unsatisfactory. Figures are plentifully paraded,

Abstract (summary)

EIGHTH AVENUE RAILROAD.--In the Board of Aldermen, last evening, a paper was received from the Board of Assistants revoking the license granted to Pettigrew, Sherman, and others, to build the Eighth Avenue Railroad, on the 301 day of July last, and granting he right to build the said road to Augustus A. Conover, Samuel C. Harriott, Theodore Martin, William O'Kell, Wm. D. Sparks, Issac V. Fowler, William Valleau, Joseph D. Baldwin, Sheldon Borwell, and such others as they may hereafter associate with them, upon condition that they comply with the following conditions: They shall lay a double track road from the intersection of Chambers-street and West Broadway, through West Broadway, Canal and Hudson-streets, to the Eighth-avenue, and along the Eighth-avenue to Fifty-first-street, and thence to the Harlem river, whenever the Common Council shall require the same to be built.

Abstract (summary)

UNITED STATES COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE. Before Mr. Commissioner MORTON. Inre Horace Preston.- Yesterday, the proceedings under the Fugitive Slave Law, for the surrender of Horace Preston, were resumed, by Messrs. Jay and Emmett Jr., who called Richard Busteed, the claimant's Counsel to the stand. The witness said he was a lawyer of this City, admitted as an attorney and counsellor, but did not think it was important to state when; became acquainted with Horace Preston about two hours before he was brought into this Court; knows Reese, of Baltimore; had not seen him this month, but saw him last month in this City; don't know when Reese first became acquainted with Horace Preston; knows that Reese has relations of his or of Mrs. Reese in this City.

Abstract (summary)

A MAN SHOT IN FORTY-FIFTH-STREET.--On Sunday night, about 11 o'clock, a man by the name of William Kelter was shot in the right shoulder, and probably fatally wounded. It seems he was in the act of picking up some boards from the premises of Jacob Rotter, in Forty-fifth-street, east of Third-avenue, and, being observed by the owner, he was ordered to desist from carrying away the proper at the peril of his life; but he would not, and Rotter exclaimed, "put down them boards or I will shoot you."

Abstract (summary)

We have no material change to notice in the Colonial and Foreign Produce markets this week; the same dullness we have so frequently had to report still continues; but holders of Produce having shown less anxiety to realize at public sales, have succeeded in maintaining former rates by buying in freely. Money continues in demand; but with large arrivals of the precious metals, the stock of Bullion increases. By the last return the Bank held [pound]14,516,473.

Abstract (summary)

The Royal Mail Steamer Africa arrived at this port yesterday morning, at about 8 o'clock. She left Liverpool on Saturday, the 13th, having thus made a very good passage. We are indebted to the Purser of the ship for an early delivery of foreign papers.
